

Walk Away

W.E.T.

In my eyes you were born second to none
Heads above all the rest, you're the chosen one
And love's design led me to deception's door
But I got, I got that wake up call
To rise before I fall

Let me remind you please
These were the words you'd say
"I will never walk, never walk away"
Now if you fool me once, then bad on you
Fool me twice then bad on me
Now you better walk, better walk away

I'm sick and tired of the rumours in the air
Can't you once let me know that you really care?
I'll be alright, without you I will be ok
Cause this is, this is your wake up call
I'm here to watch you fall

Let me remind you please
These were the words you'd say
"I will never walk, never walk away"
Now if you fool me once, then bad on you
Fool me twice then bad on me
Now you better walk, better walk away
You better walk away
