- I Wonder if you can pick up my accent on the phone
 When I call across the country, when I call across the world
 ,
 I can see you in my kitchen, I can picture you now
 As you toast to your small town and you drink the happy hour
- R: I'm in London still
 I'm in London still
 I'm in London still
- 2. I took the tube over to Camden to wander around I bought some funky records with that old Motown sound And I miss you like my left arm that's been lost in a war Today I dream of home and not of London anymore R: