

When I Die

The Waifs

When I die won't you bury me
In the town where I was born
'cause most of my life I been a ramblin' free
When I die I wanna come back home

See ever since I was a baby child
I knew I was born to roam
I had to climb to the top of the hill
Just to see what lies beyond

Seasons changin but I'm still the same
I don't belong to anyone
A piece of me will always be
Sittin' near my hometown sign

When I die won't you bury me
In the town where I was born
'cause most of my life I been a ramblin' free
When I die I wanna come back home

Well in my time I have seen
A thousand setting suns
And I made my bed but I lay down my head
And it never hurt anyone
It could be said that a girl like me
I ain't nothing but a prodigal son hmmm
And just like that prodigal boy
I'm gonna finish off where I begun

When I die won't you bury me
In the town where I was born
'cause most of my life I been a ramblin' free
When I die I wanna come back home

When I die won't you bury me
In the town where I was born
Most of my life I been a ramblin' free
When I die I wanna come back home

When I die won't you bury me
In the town where I was born
Most of my life I been a ramblin' free
When I die I wanna come back home

When I die won't you burry me
In the town where I was born
I spent my whole life travellin' free
When I die I wanna come back home
