

Falling Apart

Wakey!Wakey!

It's not blood so you think it's not love.
My lover, said I swear, you're a lunatic.
It's not enough til you think it's too much.
You know it's no good when you hesitate...

Cause Lately we've been falling apart...
Lately we're crumbling.
Lately we've been sayin a lot.
But we're just not doing it...

Understood, yes you should feel understood.
And I should feel a bit less featherweight.
Maybe be good, just this once, just be good...
And I will be a bit less delicate...

Cause Lately we've been falling apart...
Lately we're crumbling.
Lately we've been sayin a lot.
But we're just not doing it...

It's not love through the site of a gun(3x)
It's not love, but it reaks of it...

Yeah, you should, I really think that you should,
and we will be sad, but we will not regret it...
You know why you feel so misunderstood?
It's all the things that you haven't said...

Cause Lately we've been falling apart...
Lately we're crumbling.
Lately we've been sayin a lot.
But we're just not doing it...
