

I will wait for you if you promise you will try
So please will you whisper to my head all your plans
I wanna understand

And why you running?
You're always running
Is it me you don't see?
But I'm still trying
You're always crying
to me, you never see
Just be honest with me

The seasons all change but my love stayed the same
And so I knew
Would you be my tomorrow?
Or better tomorrow what do you say?
She runs away

But why you running?
You're always running
Is it me you don't see?
But I'm still trying
You're always crying
to me, you never see
Just be honest with...

I'm still waiting for you
Why can't she wait for me?
Two birds flying over
They're getting tired just like me
Just like me

And why you running?
You're always running
Is it me you don't see?
But I'm still trying
You're always crying
to me, you never see
Just be honest with
