Hello

New 600 cocaine white
New Air Ones cocaine white
I knew I'd blow propane light
But you know a nigga been nice
Six deuce cocaine white
Talk about a grey life
Seen niggas fade to black
All 'cause of that cocaine white
600 cocaine white
New Air Ones cocaine white
Knew I'd blow like propane
But you should know a nigga been nice
Six deuce cocaine white
Talk about a grey life
Seen niggas fade to black
All 'cause of that cocaine white

Never knew a love like yours
Until I found you
And I done been in trouble before
But nothing like you
Never seen a woman so pure
Until I found you
And I done been in love before
But nothing like you

I don't mean to call you out
I know we got history
I hear the word of mouth
I know that you're no good for me
I hear the famous tale, they say
You, changed a little, I know
The eighties made you rock hard, you went out with [?] then
Her daddy named Ronald, he's famous here
Live close but still a long way from here
The rumour go the mayor had a thing for ya
And you and daddy both did him and Rayful in Home wrecker, just statin' facts
She the reason some people don't got a dad
Gold digger, rich nigga, just got to ask you
Was you Len Bias? Last... at the draft?
Say [?] taboo cocaine white, voodoo come through, she paralysed
Who knew she would come through so ill-advised
Genocide then gentrified her
And she still be out here
From the hood to Hollywood
She the coldest white bitch this side of town
I got a

She like hoes, and I like hoes
She the type meet a nigga
Fuck his life up and brag that his life ghost
That's how it go
When you wanna roll, I be in the ear, she be in they nose
New girlfriend cocaine white
Black girls prolly pop veins the same night
She was on the train off the late night
She knew a mule or two that she would play tight
Pull a mask out, break her down, then pass her out
Her daddy foul but her mama a flower and it's always fire in the glass-house
