

Joan and Bobby

Walk Off the Earth

I used to write on cocaine
I used to ride with marilyn
I used to rock n roll with all the ones you know but now I suffer from all my sins

I know I'll see you around
Maybe back in my hometown

Your love was all that I asked for
But it was blowin in the wind
Diamonds and rust turn loneliness to lust but now I suffer from all my sins

I know I'll see you around
Maybe back in your hometown
And if I go drive through there I know I'll see you standing with your long brown

I used to write on cocaine
I used to ride with marilyn
I used to rock n roll with all the ones you know but now I suffer from all my sins

I know I'll see you around
Maybe back in your hometown
And if I go drive through there I know I'll see you standing with your long brown

Your love was all that I asked for
But it was blowin in the wind
Diamonds and rust turn loneliness to lust but now I suffer from all my sins
now I suffer from all my sins now I suffer from all my