

All Night

Walk the Moon

Things are changing
Around me but I
I feel the same inside

I'm getting older
Not getting wiser
It's got me up all night

That everybody
Wants the same things
At the same damn time

Running in circles
Hunting hunters
Hurry up and wait in line

I just want to meet somebody

All night
All night
Is it alright
Now I'm looking for a ride home

All night
All night
Is it alright
Now I'm looking for a ride home

Long hours
'Till the sun sets
And then I call my friends

Wash the dirt off
Button your shirt up
Do it all over again

Can you tell me
Is it really worth it
Stick it out in line

How will I answer
When I look back
How did I spend my time

I just want to meet somebody

All night
All night
Is it alright
Now I'm looking for a ride home

All night
All night
Is it alright
Now I'm looking for a ride home

Are you the one

Who will take me there?
Are you the one
Who will treat me right?

I'm not afraid of your bluest flame
Been burnt before
But I'm roaring inside

Are you the one
Who will take me there?
Are you the one
Who will treat me right?

I'm not afraid of your bluest
Been burnt before
But I'm roaring inside

I just want to meet somebody
I just want
I just want
I-I just want to meet somebody
I just want
I-I just want
I just want to meet somebody

All night
All night
Is it alright
Now I'm looking for a ride home
(I just want to meet somebody)
All night
All night
Is it alright
Now I'm looking for a ride home

(All night
All night
Is it alright
Now I'm looking for a ride home)

Are you the one
Who will take me there?
Are you the one
Who will treat me right?

I'm not afraid of your bluest flame
Been burnt before
