

Feels Good to Be High

Walk the Moon

Close your eyes, the wave is just about to break

When a lightning bolt strikes on a clear blue sky, I'm chilling
When the good times roll at the speed of light, I'm chilling
When they're cramping my style with the dollar sign, I'm chilling
When I'm jonesing for you in the web tonight, I'm chilling, chilling

I'm feeling love, I feel alive
Don't care how, don't know why
I feel the wave building up
I'm chilling

Now tell me, do you feel that rush?

Feels good to be high, high
Feels good to be alive, alive
Feels good to be high, high
Feels good to be alive, alive

If you could be high for the rest of your life, you'd be chilling
You probably want that rush but Imma give it time, I'm chilling Cause we'll be riding that vibe till the day we die but I'm chilling, chilling
Until our heart goes flat on the thin red line, we'll be chilling

I'm feeling love, I feel alive (ease off the pressure)
Don't care how, don't know why (ay)
I feel the wave building up (ease off the pressure)
I'm chilling

Now tell me, do you feel that rush?

Feels good to be high, high
Feels good to be alive, alive
Feels good to be high, high
Feels good to be alive, alive

Through this ocean of it
Caught up in the ocean of it
The pressure to be perfect perfect
"Why's it matter if doesn't make my heart pound?"

Close your eyes, the wave is just about to break

Feels good to be high, oh so high (embrace the unknown)
Feels good to be alive, alive (outer space)
Feels good to be high (completely weightless), oh so high (completely Free)
Feels good to be alive (close your eyes), alive (the wave is just about to break)
