

Headphones

Walk the Moon

I can take a beating like a good pair of headphones
I can take a hit like Karate Kid
You know you could learn a lot from a good pair of headphones
Like how to take a beating
I know I did

Oh, it's just another chain reaction
When you make the big mistake
So for all our satisfaction
I feel this way

A pretty picture of a better man taking you out
Holding your hand, it's your favorite band
He says, "it's so fucking cute when you rock it out"
If you laugh to your route, out of breath, CPR, mouth to mouth

Oh, it's just another chain reaction
When you make the big mistake
So for all our satisfaction
I learn something

(I'm so glad we can still be friends)

I can take a beating like a good pair of headphones
And I can stand the test of time like Harrison Ford
So go ahead, rough me up like a good pair of headphones
I wanna open my heart, but you won't open the door

It's just another chain reaction
When you make the big mistake
So for all our satisfaction
I feel this way
