

Cry On

Walter Hawkins

No one knows all of the hurt you feel
The heavy load you bear
And if they did they wouldn't care
Questions will arise
While tears fill your eyes
Still there is a reason for every season
In our lives
Cry on
The pain you feel inside your heart
Is understandable
Hold on
No it's not the end
Soon the healing will begin
Just be strong
Even if you have to cry on
Cry on
Through the night you pine away
Longing for the break of day
Hold on
It doesn't matter what you face
God will wipe your tears away
Be strong
Even if you have to
Cry on
Hold on
Be strong even if you
Cry cry
Hold on be strong oh
