

Keyhole

Walter Meego

You won't see me express emotion
tears runnin' down my cheek draws in an ocean
Locked in a room, lookin' out the window
And when i look at you, i look in through a keyhole

You'll never find me anywhere you look,
A happy story in a closed book.

Locked in a room, lookin' out the window
And when i look at you, i look in through a keyhole

What's not in me, is not in you
lookin' through a keyhole
lookin' through a keyhole

What's not in me, is not in you
lookin' through a keyhole
lookin' through a keyhole

You won't see me express emotion
tears runnin' down my cheek draws in an ocean
Locked in a room, lookin' out the window
And when i look at you, i look in through a keyhole

You'll never find me anywhere you look,
A happy story in a closed book.

Locked in a room, lookin' out the window
And when i look at you, i look in through a keyhole

What's not in me, is not in you
lookin' through a keyhole
lookin' through a keyhole

What's not in me, is not in you
lookin' through a keyhole
lookin' through a keyhole
