

If You Knew What I Know

Wanda Jackson

Oh, if you knew what I know
You'd be glad to let him go
A guy that stays true is hard one to find
I've heard my old flame is now on your mind

But if you knew what I know
You'd be glad to let him go
Has he told you of the joys that we knew?
Or does he pretend he loves only you

'Cause if you knew what I know
You'd be glad to let him go
Someday you'll know his love isn't real
He'll come back to me and then how will you feel

'Cause he'll cheat on you like he cheated on me
So send him back now while your heart's still free
'Cause if you knew what I know
You'd be glad to let him go

You'd be glad to let him go
