

It'll Take Awhile

Wanda Jackson

Here I sit alone and broken hearted walk the floor all night si nce we parted
I'll get over you I don't know how or when it'll take awhile ho ld by can't last till then Yes it'll take awhile to shake the pain of losing you Someone will take your place but I don't know who The world outside holds nothing now for me it'll take awhile to shake your memory
So I'll do my best to forget you as I think about the things we used to do
And I'll forget you I don't know how or when it'll take awhile if I'll hold out till then Yes it'll take awhile...
