

Please Call Today

Wanda Jackson

Please call today for I'll be gone tomorrow
I'm sitting here my darling waiting for your call
I know I shouldn't want you at all
For you belong to someone else your love I must borrow
Please call today for I'll be gone tomorrow
Please call today for I'll be gone tomorrow
Last time we were together you said that we must part
You're sorry but another owns your heart
I must go away somewhere tryin' forget my sorrow
Please call today for I'll be gone tomorrow
Please call today for I'll be gone tomorrow
