

Love Won't Let Me

Wanessa

What I should do
Is play it cool
In front of you and just might fool you
For a minute or two

But what I can't hide
Is everything I feel inside
Cause the truth is, baby
My heart starts racin
When I'm next to you

And love won't let me

Not go crazy when you come around
Go insane when we get a little closer now
And I'd inclined to chicken out
But love won't let me (oh)

Love has a funny way of getting you in
To something that scares you
But you can't resist
Let you leave without they kiss
But love won't let me

So we took that step
And now I'm over my head
I'm circling earth and I'm pretty sure
I won't be coming down for a little while
But the trouble is, ever since that little kiss
I don't care how late it gets
Don't wanna let you out of these arms of mine

Cause love won't let me

Not go crazy when you come around
Go insane when we get a little closer now
And I'd inclined to chicken out
But love won't let me (oh)

Love has a funny way of getting you in
To something that scares you
But you can't resist
Let you leave without they kiss
But love won't let me

And now... I only wanna spend my time
Holding you tight every night
Baby everytime I think about it, oh
I've loved you from the day we met
The way you get me
I'm so glad that love won't let me

Not go crazy when you come around
Go insane when we get a little closer now
And I'd inclined to chicken out
But love won't let me (oh)

Love has a funny way of getting you in
To something that scares you
But you can't resist
Let you leave without they kiss
But love won't let me

Not go crazy when you come around
Go insane when we get a little closer now
And I'd inclined to chicken out
But love won't let me (oh)

Love has a funny way of getting you in
To something that scares you
But you can't resist
Let you leave without they kiss
But love won't let me

Not go crazy when you come around
Go insane when we get a little closer now
And I'd inclined to chicken out
But love won't let me (oh)

Love has a funny way of getting you in
To something that scares you
But you can't resist
Let you leave without they kiss
But love won't let me
