

Forgotten Dead

Warbringer

Lead: Carroll
Encircled, cut off from reinforcement
At all costs you must hold the line
Living among the slain with the knowledge
You could join them at any time
The enemy advances without number
Signaled by a creeping barrage
The attack goes on for weeks and weeks
The trenches awash with blood
Gunning down the enemy
Each one without a face
What once were fields of green
Are now endless fields of graves
Forgotten
Forgotten
MARCH!

Lead: Carroll
Lead: Laux
Your comrade rises up to fire
You watch in horror as he falls
The life drained away from his body
Through the hole in his skull
Gunning down the enemy
Send them to their graves
The ways of man will never change
The fallen die in vain
Forgotten
Forgotten
DEAD! DEAD! DEAD!
The whistle blows, you are forced to advance into oncoming machine gun fire
Caught in the blast as the mines detonate lifeless bodies hang from barbed wire Stabbed through the gut by a bayonet, blood chokes your scream
Another dying soul is laid upon the altar of mankind's greed
Forgotten
DEAD!
