

Senseless Life

Warbringer

From the moment you were born you were dieing
With one foot planted in the grave
Programmed by your surroundings
To react in a given set of ways
You can't think for yourself so you are already dead
Follow only the ways of your own, abandon laws of god
Held in check by convention, strangling free thought
Your choice is only consequence, eyes are stricken blind
LIES! Senseless lies
LIFE! Living a senseless life
Bred to swallow lies, to ignore the glaring truth
Do the world some good and resist
The urge to reproduce
Unable to be free, life's hopeless for you
Circumstance will dictate your every move
LIES! Senseless lies
LIFE! Living a senseless life
UGH...Living your worthless life
