

Circle of Hate

Wardrum

Inside you thoughts could kill
In words unheard all your needs uphold
Your heart is left to chill
Your eyes are blank but the fears unfold

This fight is needless
Devours the mind and you're close enough
Time is up for any leap of faith
And words are needless
Our thoughts will stroll in an endless path
Decision is a place we cope with fate
Enter the circle of hate

We met here once before
Long enough to dismiss all faith
Between the crust and the core
Auras dance upon their dying wraith

This fight is needless
Devours the mind and you're close enough
Time is up for any leap of faith
And words are needless
Our thoughts will stroll in an endless path
Decision is a place we cope with fate
Enter the circle of hate
