

No Retreat

Wardrum

I know the circumstances
But you should never say "never"
No need for backward glances
For time will march till forever

Reliving past is useless and your judgment is not fair
Don't suffer over something pointless for this day

Hey! Stay, live this day like there is no tomorrow
Wild flames, life's cruel games your ambition they swallow
Gain speed, take the lead there is no time to borrow
Wipe tears! Have no fears there is no good in sorrow
No retreat!

The tender years are over
With all their dreams left to wither
But all new chances hover
When they come forth, try to be there

Reliving past is useless and your judgment is not fair
Don't suffer over something pointless for this day

Hey! Stay, live this day like there is no tomorrow
Wild flames, life's cruel games your ambition they swallow
Gain speed, take the lead there is no time to borrow
Wipe tears! Have no fears there is no good in sorrow
No retreat!

Await for better days and greet their coming
You'll find a thousand ways to lead, not follow
And overcome all your fears
Reliving past is useless and your judgment is not fair
Don't suffer over something pointless for this day

Hey! Stay, live this day like there is no tomorrow
Wild flames, life's cruel games your ambition they swallow
Gain speed, take the lead there is no time to borrow
Wipe tears! Have no fears there is no good in sorrow
No retreat!
