

Rebirth

Wardrum

Unlocked the doors of hate
Unleashed the winds of rage
Encaged in apathy
All dreams and all hope
My thoughts are taken back
To where oblivion dwells
My sails are colored black
I'll never return

My shadow will keep unseen
A new soul
I'm holding within
No one will know
Where I've been or
What my desires may bring
This very soul
That I'm breeding
Will never call out your name
And for my heart
That's still bleeding
Time will drain
Out all the pain

This world is breaking down
I won't stay chained and bound
Letting all fears unfold without control

My shadow will keep unseen
A new soul
I'm holding within
No one will know
Where I've been or
What my desires may bring
This very soul
That I'm breeding
Will never call out your name
And for my heart
That's still bleeding
Time will drain
Out all the pain
