

Unforgiving

Wardrum

Beneath a veil of white mist
Dream worlds exist forsaken
And when the mind is unleashed
That's where the soul is taken

A light that's never bending
Feeds all the dreams I live in
There all my fears are ending
And nothing is deceiving

Aching, living
All that I have ever seen
Pain unforgiving
Taking, giving
All that I have never been
Pain unforgiving

You said our love was borrowed
And that we had to leave it
Now I stroll down that dream road
Where I can still relive it

A light that's never bending
Feeds all the dreams I live in
There all my fears are ending
And nothing is deceiving

Aching, living
All that I have ever seen
Pain unforgiving
Taking, giving
All that I have never been
Pain unforgiving

Left in the swing of a dream
Lost in the space of time
Confusing thoughts, here they gleam
As if the world is mine

Aching, living
All that I have ever seen
Pain unforgiving
Taking, giving
All that I have never been
Pain unforgiving
Aching, living
All that I have ever seen
Pain unforgiving
