Kiss of Death

Tragic was the memory A sacrifice of broken dreams It turned the sky a fiery red And dropped this curse onto my head

For forty days and forty nights I slept all day, I worked all night With a burnin' hunger I said goodbye To every victim that caught my eye

I have no mercy I tell no lies I kiss the strangers And then watch them die

By the light of the moon I feel a strange desire By the light of the moon I hear the devils choir Oh I am I said The Queen of the dead By the light of the moon I bring the kiss of death

Now the sun is fallin' Soon the night will be callin' me, be callin' me

With a bloody hunter inside my chest I lift my head above this mess I walk the streets all through the night To quench my thirst before the morning light

There is no witness No alibis This is the nightmare you will Not survive

I have no mercy I tell no lies I kiss the strangers And I watch them die

By the light of the moon I feel a strange desire By the light of the moon I hear the devil's choir By the light of the moon I feel a strange desire By the light of the moon I hear the devils choir Oh I am I said The Queen of the dead By the light of the moon I am the kiss of death
