Metal Racer

Racing down on the motorway No rest, no place to stay He calls it running out of time

Got no place in society Forever fought the Philistines He forever walked upon his line

Outside of the law An eternal war No-one can hold him back Ready to attack

He's a damned - racing through the night He's a damned - will never see the light He's a damned - darkness in his eyes He's a damned - but metal racer never dies

Don't care what other people say Be what you are, take the hotter way Don't be a madman, don't give up

Take this heavy sound into your brain So it's easier to break the chain 'Cause heavy metal knows no stop

Outside of the law An eternal war No-one can hold him back Ready to attack

He's a damned - racing through the night He's a damned - will never see the light He's a damned - darkness in his eyes He's a damned - but metal racer never dies
