

Don't Bring Her Here

Warmen

I've locked the door so you can't see me here right now.
You don't deserve to watch me cry 'cous of what you did to me.
No.
I wanna be free.

No matter how or why you spend the last time of your life.
It's not gonna be on me, last time I watched you role your dice

If you ever wonder where I am, I'm in your past
And if you ever wonder, no I'm not coming back.

Don't bring her here now, I might just kill your baby.
And I'm better of without you, I don't know.
But I'm not gonna here now, I'm thinking maybe
I'm better of without you, Yes, I know.

If you ever wonder who I am, I am your past
And now when you still wonder, no way am I coming back.

So many times I try to get the hell away from you.
But you have .. by your side .. what to do

Don't bring her here now, I might just kill your baby.
And I'm better of without you, I don't know.
But I'm not gonna here now, I'm thinking maybe
I'm better of without you, Yes, I know.

I'm jumping, reach for the sky

Mayby you can watch me fly.
