Faithful Eyes

Down in the darkness Someone is searching A cure for love Dying emotions

Agonizing reveries The river of your painful memories Flowing through your mind Leaving your eyes blind

Looking for a hideaway To shed your bitter tears

Faithful eyes The veil of mist before your mind Staring of your Faithful eyes

So weak is a heart of restless soul Swept away by the wave of lust And now the river flows Upon your mortal soul

Now, here in your hideaway You shed your bitter tears Warmen
