

One, two, three... one, two, three...

Don't you call anybody else baby,
'cause I'm your baby still.
It took a long time to make it,
but I've never changed my mind.
I've never tried to fake it,
never drew the line.

Don't you call anybody else baby,
'cause I'm your baby still.
Took a long time to make it,
but I've never changed my mind.

You speak your fear,
thinking in circles
and checking what mirrors don't see.
You live your life like a page
from the book of my fantasy.

How I love you.

You speak your fear,
thinking in circles
and checking what mirrors don't see.
You live your life like a page
from the book of my fantasy.

You speak your fear,
thinking in circles
and checking what mirrors don't see.
You live your life like a page
from the book of my fantasy.

You speak your fear,
thinking in circles
and checking what mirrors don't see.
You live your life like a page
from the book of my fantasy.

Don't you call anybody else baby
Don't you call anybody else baby
Don't you call anybody else baby
Don't you call anybody else baby
Don't you call anybody else baby
Don't you call anybody else baby
Don't you call anybody else baby...
