

I'll Start Believing

Warpaint

Oh

Daddy left me once you know
He took off when I was 6 months old
And he said, "Something difficult about this," he said
"Got to do my own thing now"

Daddy left me once you know
He took off when I was 6 months old
And he said, something difficult about this he said
"Got to do my own thing now,
Have to do my own thing now"

I'll start believing
I'll start believing in you now
I'll start believing
I'll start believing in you now

Daddy left me once you know
He took off when I was 6 months old
And he said, "Something difficult about this," he said
"Got to do my own thing now"

I'll start believing
I'll start believing in you
I'll start believing
I'll start believing in you now

Got to do my own thing now
Trying to do my own thing now

You went away and still my heart was breaking
And so I'll try to never it show

I'll start believing
I'll start believing in you now
I'll start believing
I'll start believing in you now
