

oh, wonderful one, why are you like that?
glow in the darkness that's how we do it
just like the stars up on your ceiling that
put you to sleep after

cross the line in the darkness of your room in your room, in your room there's your head, it's damaged from your talk, talk, talk clinging with your fear, fear, fear it's hanging with your tears here we are apart
but not again and again again and again
that doesn't make sense so put away your tools and

and in the end they ask you for your reply don't you tell them what you found out
this time
