

All My Bridges Are Burning

Warrant

Jimmy goes through money like a millionaire
Bills pile up around him but he doesn't care
Picks up his best friend at the local scene
Wraps it up in the corner of a magazine

All Night - God he hates to be lonely
Day light - Hasn't seen any sun in 3 days
Know why - Every time he comes down
You can hear him say

Ooh, all my bridges are burning
Watch them go down in flames
Can't even remember my name
All my bridges are burning, oh yeah

Jimmy treats every night like a holiday
Makes a friend or two, but they never stay
Taking care of number one
Is his point of view
And if you keep him high
He'll be friends with you

Wipe that sweat from your lip
Take a look around you get hip
Looking in from outside
You're slowly watching yourself let you die

Ooh, all my bridges are burning
Watch them go down in flames
I can't even remember my name
All my bridges are burning

(All my bridges are burning)
I watch them go down in flames
I can't even remember my name
All my bridges are burning, oh yeah
