

Show Must Go On

Warrant

You bought your tickets to the show
I'm in my room all alone
Ticking time bomb set to blow
All I wanna do is go
Come on let's go

You work your ass every day
Oh you know there's hell to pay
Your life's a lock
I got the key
Let the music set you free
Just let it be

Whatever happens let it go
Cause the show must go on
The show must go on

Hear all the bad news all around
Trying hard to keep you down
Gotta change it on the chin
Don't you ever let it in
Don't let it in

Whatever happens let it go
Cause the show must go on
The show must go on

Show 'em Joey!

There is only one thing that you know
Whatever happens let it go
Cause the show must go on
The show must go on
