

I'll Go On

Warren Zevon

The sky is gray
The day is turning
Dark begins to fall
At night I cannot help but think about you

Though I'm lonely
It is only
Love and that is all
So I will come and go my way without you

Though I'm feeling sad I know
There'll be another sunrise
Now I'm lonely; I'm resigned
To live my life in loneliness

Who was I to bring you down
I didn't have the right
Now you're gone but I'll go on
And I will be all right
Close your eyes
Don't look back
Just turn and walk away
Hey, hey, hey

The sky is gray
The day is turning
Dark begins to fall
At night I cannot help but think about you

Though I'm lonely
It is only
Love and that is all
So I will come and go my way without you
