Social Fears

Watchtower

In the system of humanity Spreads a prejudiced disease The suppression of each generation By the previous idealogy To voice their opposition To our ever-advancing culture In varying forms of objection Yet we continue to progress -We must

Social fears Fears of the righteous We will fight their fatuous ideals Social fears Fears of the righteous Smash down the walls that they erect and crush the restrictions

Social fears Fears of the righteous We will fight their fatuous ideals Social fears Fears of the righteous Smash down the walls that they erect and crush the restrictions

In guise of political conservative Or evangelical saint The epitome of corruption They become most dangerous When legislative power is granted

They make laws of their morals We must prove ourselves as formidable enemies To this injustice and defend our civil freedom The moral majority are victims of social fears
