

Daydream

Wave

Sunshine, strawberry wine a little taste of leather and lace colour blind its all in my mind temporary insanity
when everything is wrong

It's a perfect day for feelin' this way it's a hell of a time
for speaking your mind when nothing is as it seems

Candy, sweet as can be im so tall ill crush em all higher, flying away wave goodbye to yesterday when everything is wrond

It's a perfect day for feelin' this way

For so long
I've been tired of the things I do
for so long
all this weight up on my shoulders
for so long
for so long, so long

colour blind it's all in my mind
temporary insanity
it's a perfect day for feeling this way
when nothing is at it seems
