

New Sensation

Wave

I can't take it anymore
I'm tearing down these walls
Don't know why but it's more than a feelin'

I'm walking out the door
Ain't no sign at all
But I know that I'm not dreamin'

Someday, I will riding on a wave
Off the rails on this runaway train
I don't know what tomorrow brings

I feel it coming, it's in the air
A new sensation from out of nowhere
I will take you there
Oh whoa whoa oh

I've got nothing left to hide
I've opened up my mind
And I'm ready for a new beginning
If there's another world outside
I wanna see it with my own eyes
Cause I'm tired of waiting
