

wherever you are

Wave

Up and down this one way street
Black and white is all I see
For this moment time stands still
This illusion seems so real

But this will take sometime
And it leaves me wondering

Wherever you are was never this far
Still I feel you breathing
All that I need is just out of reach
Can you hear me calling

Free falling into the sky
Feeling weightless I close my eyes
I can't escape these lucid dreams
Coz nothing out there is as it seems

But this will take sometime
And it leaves me wondering

Wherever you are was never this far
Still I feel you breathing
All that I need is just out of reach
Can you hear me calling

Wherever you are
Was never this far
Still I feel you breathing
And I'm falling out...

Wherever you are was never this far
Still I feel you breathing
All that I need is just out of reach
Can you hear me calling
(2x)

Wherever you are
