

Surrender

Way Out West

just surrender
you know you want to
let go of all the
fear that holds you
back from life
from taking time
from healing of these
wounds you have inside
inside

just surrender
you know you want to
let go of all the
fear that holds you
back from life
from taking time
from healing of these

just surrender
let go of all the
shame that holds you
mistakes you made
promises you break
it's not too late
to set it straight

just surrender
let go of all the

let go of all the

you know you want to

just surrender
let go of all the
fear that holds you
