

Breaking The Ascendence

WAYD

i'm breaking the ascendence as you go as you try to say my name i'm crawling out of my hell as i rise above my pain it's the same as always where there's nothing to lose you put yourself into things but it's just half of you unable to transcend or touch the other side you're prisoner of your own of your own vicious lies tearin' apart the chains that bound me i rediscover the darker side needin' light i can feel the scent inside of me flyin' high within, high on my strongest vibe unable.....

i'm breaking....
