Waylon Jennings

This place is too damn lonesome I think I'll change and go out for a while

On second thought where could I go with a closet full of clothe s that's out of style

It's another night of TV or another night of nothin' on my hand \boldsymbol{s}

I gotta change my way of thinkin' 'cause I'm still thinkin' lik e a married man

Suddenly single

It's hard to break old habits for the bad
If I wasn't over thirty
I might just move back in with mom and dad

I should call on some old flame, oh that ain't as easy as it so unds

My body says I need someone but I heart ain't ready for someone right now

Maybe in the mornin' I'll wake up and see the light Small consolation Lord for the way I feel tonight

Suddenly single

If I wasn't over thirty

I might just move back in with mom and dad

Suddenly single
Someone's always right when someone's wrong
Anyway you look at it
I'm suddenly alone
