

Lookin' For Better Days

Wayne Hancock

Well looky here baby don't be driftin' away
I know you're goin' to leave me, but it won't be today
I've gotta sad case of lonesome, sad case of lonesome
and blues
I'm lookin' for better days to fall out of love with you Well roses are red and violets are blue
You stopped lovin' me, and I'll be damned if you do I've gotta sad case of lonesome, sad case of lonesome
and blues
I'm lookin' for better days to fall out of love with you
(Davey)

(yeah, man, tell to wait on me pa, yeah, lay it on) (looky here baby)
If can't say it, ain't nothing at all Well I can see it comin', but I gotta stand tall I've gotta sad case of lonesome, sad case of lonesome
and blues
I'm lookin' for better days to fall out of love with
you
When we first met, I knew we would part Well don't wanna pry, but I'm fixin' to start I've gotta sad case of lonesome, sad case of lonesome
and blues
I'm lookin' for better days to fall out of love with
you
(Wakefield, let's hear you man)

(awh, play it boy, play it) (that's alright baby, I'll find somebody else) (lemme jus' git my stuff together and I'll git on outta the house, down the road)
Well looky here baby don't be driftin' away
I know you're goin' to leave me, but it won't be today
I've gotta sad case of lonesome, sad case of lonesome
and blues
I'm lookin' for better days to fall out of love with
you
