

Your Love and His Blood

Wayne Hancock

Well your new looking called me last night.(?)
He got drunk and tried to start a fight.
I pulled my pistol from my pocket and then I wrecked his brains,
I got your love and his blood on my hand
I got your love and his blood on my hand, if i can't have your love I'd rather be your only man but next time we're together you'll be on the witness stand,
I got your love and his blood on my hand.
Solos
Well Jonhnnny Law will looking hard I know, but I can't let him catch me, so I gotta go.
But I'm tired of running, so here I'll make my stand,
I got your love and his blood on my hand
I got your love and his blood on my hand,
if i can't have your love I'd rather be your only man.
But next time we're together you'll be on the witness
stand,
I got your love and his blood on my hand.
