

Would I Know You

Wayne Watson

Would I know You now if You walked into the room
If You stilled the crowd, if Your light dispelled the gloom?
And if I saw Your wounds, touched Your thorn pierced brow
I wonder if I'd know You now?
Would I know You now if You walked into this place
Would I cause You shame, would my games be Your disgrace?
Or would I worship You, fall upon my face?
I wonder if I'd know You now?
Or have the images I painted so distorted who You are
That even if the world was looking, they could not see You, the real You?
Have I changed the true reflection, to fulfill my own design
Making You want, I want, not showing You forth divine, divine?
Would I miss You now, if You left and closed the door
Would my flesh cry out? I don't need You anymore
Or would I follow You, could I be restored?
I wonder, I wonder will I ever learn?
I wonder if I'd know You now?
