I guess that I should probably leave right now 'cause I'm already kinda sweaty and freakin' out I gotta time-bomb headache that's ticking down I guess that everything is better when I'm not around

It's all outta context
There's nothing I'm into
Call it a complex
It's really quite simple
I'm tired of these hang ups
I wish someone would call me back
How 'bout it?

Well my tongue is tired and I'm seeing stars I got a million ugly words for what you are I gotta busted back and a broken heart I guess everything is better wherever you are

It's all outta context
There's nothing I'm into
Call it a complex
It's really quite simple
I'm tired of these hang ups
I wish someone would call me back
How 'bout it?

It's all about context
There's nothing I'm into
Call it a complex
It's really quite simple
I'm tired of these hang ups
I wish someone would call me back

I said that I'm so sorry to bring you down I guess that everything's better when I'm not around (3x)
