

I know that if I let it
It's gonna happen every single night
I'd really love to tell you
It's only getting better all the time

But every now and then
Well I come to
When I know my friends
Won't even know where I've been
Or how the night was spent
And the fact is
I won't know myself
Until I do it again

Hey, let's take it easy for a night
Try, to keep it relatively light
Cos otherwise, tomorrow I may not remember this Tonight, I really hoped it wouldn't end like this
But I should have guessed it

Cos every now and then
Well I come to
When I know my friends
Won't even know where I've been
Or how the night was spent
And the fact is
I won't know myself
Until I do it again

I know that if I let it
It's gonna happen every single night
I'd really love to tell you
It's only getting better all the time

I know that if I let it
It's gonna happen every single night
I don't know what to tell you
It's sure not getting better

Cos every now and then
Well I come to
When I know my friends
Won't even know where I've been
Or how the night was spent
And the fact is
I won't know myself
Until I do it again
