History Repeats

We Are Scientists

I got this whole thing figured out I guess I better write it down, now 'Cause presently my memory's not terribly sound Everything is twice around, now

It shouldn't be this hard I guess I'm not as smart As I'd like to think I am And even though you won't Admit it now I know, you know, I know, you know

I guess it isn't any news This keeps coming out in two's If history repeats itself then what can I do? Nothing I can say is news to you

It shouldn't be this hard I guess I'm not as smart As I'd like to think I am And even though you won't Admit it now I know, you know, I know, you know

Let's get this calendar straight I shouldn't try t mae sense Of anything that goes on When it goes on again and again and again

It shouldn't be this hard I guess I'm not as smart As I'd like to think I am And even though you won't Admit it now I know, you know, I know, you know
