

Drag Me Down

We Are the Ocean

Drag me down, drag me down to all of this
Well I'm reading all the wrong signs we only need more time
This is the way will be remembered, this is the way will all end up
I don't need to feel so alone and I'm standing here with my back against the wall

With our time to hold while you fade away
Cause I don't want to lose you this way
So I'll try to hold on for a better day
Cause I don't want to lose you this way

We've come this far now with every breathe show you how I've changed
It's not too late
We've come this far now with every breathe show you how I change

With our time to hold while you fade away
Cause I don't want to lose you this way
So I'll try to hold on for a better day
Cause I don't want to lose you this way

Drag me down, drag me down to all of this
Drag me down to the only thing I got worth keeping
I swear I swear it wasn't my fault
You dragged me down dragged me down I swear
(Drag me down, drag me down)
And I swear I swear it wasn't my fault
You dragged me down dragged me down I swear
I swear I swear it wasn't my fault
You dragged me down dragged me to the ground
I swear I swear it wasn't my fault
You dragged me down dragged me down I swear
(Dragged me to the ground)
I swear I swear it wasn't my fault
You dragged me down dragged me down
