

Follow What You Need

We Are the Ocean

At times I feel like I can't get through to you and I don't know why
I cannot find a reason why you lie to me
And it hurts real bad that you don't care for the ones that care for you
If you're ever alone, give me a call, if you ever need somebody

Follow, follow what you need
Follow, follow what you need
Just be yourself, you know I'm right
Follow, follow what you need
Follow, follow what you need
Just be yourself, you know I'm right

Tonight there will be no excuse
Shut up, shut up, you knew
Tonight, tonight I'm telling you
Shut up, shut up, you knew
Tonight there will be no excuse
Shut up, shut up, you knew
Tonight, tonight I'm telling you
(If you're ever alone, give me a call, if you ever need somebody)
Shut up, shut up, you knew

Follow, follow what you need
Follow, follow what you need
Just be yourself, you know I'm right
Follow, follow what you need
Follow, follow what you need
Just be yourself, you know I'm right

And now you're in deep water
Drowning without a care
And now you're in deep water

Where are you going now?
Where's my friend I knew so well?
Where are you going now, lost inside this broken house?
Where are you going now?

Follow, follow what you need
Follow, follow what you need
Just be yourself, you know I'm right
Follow, follow what you need
Follow, follow what you need
Just be yourself, you know I'm right
