

(I've Never Felt This) God Damn Good

We Are the Ocean

This is the way you make me feel;
so invincible, so visible,
nothing can ever hurt me now.
And now I'm falling down,
coz I can see you clearly now, see you clearly now,
no more hiding in the shame.

I feel it burning, I feel it burning through my veins,
oh and it's driving, it's driving me insane.
Coz when I'm with you I feel so alive,
when I'm with you my love I can't hide.

I have never felt this god damn good,
my heart beats for you, heart beat is true.

Your voice keeps pulling me in,
your voice keeps pulling me in.
So hold me tight, and don't you ever release me,
don't you ever release me.

I feel it burning, I feel it burning through my veins,
oh and it's driving, it's driving me insane.
Coz when I'm with you I feel so alive,
when I'm with you my love I can't hide.

I have never felt this god damn good,
my heart beats for you, heart beat is true.
And now it's all I ever wanted,
I swear, this must be something.
Coz I have never felt this god damn good.

And I have never felt this god damn good,
my heart beats for you heart beat is true.
And it's all I ever wanted,
I swear, this must be something.
Coz I have never felt this god damn good,
felt this god damn good.
