

Overtime is a Crime

We Are the Ocean

Come on, get up, it's that time again
I'm bored, the thought of doing it all again
I am so numb, how long must I wait here for?
I look out towards the sun
Where my hopes and dreams are born

Sometimes I feel like
Sometimes I feel like walking away
Enough's enough at least for one more day
Always the same, I'm so tired
I really need a change

Do you have alive son?
Do you self-believe?
Do you want the answers?
Then take a walk with me.
Do you have alive son?
Do you self-believe?
Do you want the answers?
Then take a walk with me.

Sometimes I feel like
Sometimes I feel like walking away
Enough's enough at least for one more day
Always the same, I'm so tired
I really need a change

Do you have alive son?
Do you self-believe?
Do you want the answers?
Then take a walk with me.

Sometimes I feel like
Sometimes I feel like walking away
Enough's enough at least for one more day
Always the same, I'm so tired
I really need a change
