

Runaway

We Are the Ocean

I
I won't pretend
That I did the best I can
It's an awful shame
But am I to blame
Like a train crash we collide into each other

How good it looks, from afar
I said some things just to comfort your heart

And it's late at night and I wonder where you are
(I know there must be something wrong)
I'm being played for a fool yes I know but I'm not one for letting go

Cause I don't like where its going
And it's bound to get deeper
And it's never gonna get any better unless we try
You said I don't like this
Well I don't either
Well pardon me if I just don't suffice

I
I won't pretend
That I did the best I can
My mind is set and it's full of regret
And I say bye bye (and I say bye bye)
And I say bye bye to love

And it's late at night and I wonder where you are
(I know there must be something wrong)
I'm being played for a fool yes I know but I'm not one for Letting go

Cause I don't like where it's going
And it's bound to get deeper
And it's never gonna get any better unless we try
You said I don't like this
Well I don't either
Well pardon me if I just don't suffice

Run Away
Run Away
Run Away
Run A-Way

Cause I don't like where it's going
And it's bound to get deeper
And it's never gonna get any better unless we try
You said I don't like this
Well I don't either
Well pardon me if I just don't suffice
